Background

Residential Care Facilities for the Elderly (RCFEs) are assisted living facilities that have long been a preferred community alternative for those who are unable to live on their own but not appropriate for skilled nursing facilities. Compared to independent community living, RCFEs provide an increased level of care in a supportive and safe environment with 24-hour supervision for individuals age 60 and older. RCFEs are licensed by the California Department of Social Services (CDSS) through Community Care Licensing (CCL).

In recent years, due to increased regulations and labor laws, higher resident care needs, inadequate funding, and rising costs, the number of RCFEs in San Francisco has declined. Over the past six (6) years, there have been 21 RCFEs that have closed, accounting for a 5% decrease of beds citywide. The smaller, more affordable facilities have accounted for the greatest number of closures making it more difficult for low-income individuals to secure placement and presenting a potential critical barrier for the City's support network and system of care. The Assisted Living Workgroup, tasked by the Long Term Care Coordinating Council recently researched this issue. Their recommendations of support for this needed service are currently being considered by the City.

As such, the purpose of this grant is to support and improve the sustainability of non-profit RCFEs with less than 65 beds, serving individuals who are low income, from underserved and minority communities, have dementia and other cognitive disorders or behavioral health issues, including chronic mental illness and substance abuse. This grant is not meant to be ongoing and DAAS will reprocure bids next year to give other providers opportunities to identify needs.

Grantee Performance

They were found to be in compliance with monitoring requirements. They are scheduled to receive their FY18-19 monitoring site visit in March 2019. Kimochi, Inc. was granted a Citywide Fiscal and Compliance Monitoring waiver in FY17-18 due to being in compliance for the previous two years. Their FY18-19 site visit was conducted on February 6, 2019 and the monitoring report is currently being developed.

Program Monitoring: This is a new grant for Kimochi, Inc. and Self-Help for the Elderly. There is no monitoring history to report at this time.
